MICROSOFT CORPORATION SIGNS AS LEADING SPONSOR OF DIGITAL IMAGING CONFERENCE IN ANN ARBOR

The Andrah Foundation has announced Microsoft Corporation has become a leading sponsor of the 2006 Photoshop Soup2Nuts conference. In addition to their sponsorship, Microsoft will run digital workflow presentations at the conference, June 23-24 at Washtenaw Community College in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

The 4th Annual Photoshop Soup2Nuts Conference, presented by the Andrah Foundation, is a 2-day learning workshop covering the full genre of digital imaging. With 5-tracks of sessions and mini sessions to choose from, the conference is appropriate for collegiate students to professionals in graphic design, videography, 3D animation and the fine arts.

Presenters for the conference are Ben Willmore, Bruce Fraser, Derek Blair, Doug Elbinger, Dwight Cendrowski, Greg De Stefano, James Partridge, Jeff Schewe, Lynda Angelastro, Marc Pawlinger, Renee Pearson, Scott Dunham, Scott Kelby, Seth Resnick, Terry Abrams, Terry White and Photoshop Creator - Thomas Knoll.

Registration is currently being taken online at www.photoshopsoup2nuts.org or by calling 1-888-600-SOUP (7687)

The Andrah Foundation is a non-profit organization founded by Ruth Knoll, wife of the creator of Photoshop, Thomas Knoll. All proceeds from the Photoshop Soup2Nuts conference go to non-profit organizations throughout the area working with youth in arts, education and technology.
